

Instructional Designer – 10 Positions

Qualification: Any Graduate or Diploma (Candidates with MA in English are preferred)

Experience: 3 to 5 years of experience in Instructional Designing

Job Requisites:

- Should have innovative thinking, planning and organizing work
- Working Strategically
- Analyze audience, content, and technology components
- Analyze learning styles and learning material
- Analyze gaps, determine cause, recommend action
- Define goals, standards, learners, and learning outcomes
- Select and apply apt learning model with various instructional strategies, theories and activities
- Assess instructional effectiveness
- Knowledge of instructional theories and practices
- Sequence instructional and assessment material
- Collaborate with SME, Writer, and Interactive designers
- Knowledge of graphic design standards, content standards, LMS, AMS, Collaboration tools
- Knowledge of IEEE, QTI standards
- Knowledge of information architecture and Usability principles
- Ability to map content to appropriate media elements
- Should have effective English speaking, writing and presentation skills
- Demonstrate Excellent interpersonal skills
- Select and recommend instructional media and strategies
- Communicate effectively by audio-visual and written form
- Develop performance measurement instruments
- Evaluate instruction, program and process
- Should be able to interface with cross functional teams
- Should be willing to work in MYSORE