

UI Designer / Web Designer: 02 positions

Qualification: Any Degree or Diploma

Experience: 4 to 5 years

Job Description:

- Should be able to build user interface design concepts and prototypes
- Work closely with usability team members, product managers, development teams and other internal stakeholders to build storyboards, POC mockups,
- Must have hands on experience in dynamic web design
- Able to understand business cases (functionality) and manifest to set of web pages that provides immersive rich user experience
- Extensive knowledge of usability methodologies / tools including user interface specifications, user centric design processes, coding practices for accessibility and data analysis
- Must be detail oriented with abilities to multi-task and effectively handle changing requirement and priorities
- Fluency with web standards and technologies, including CSS, HTML, Java script, PHP, JSP, XUL and XAML
- Strong web graphics production capability and practitioner using Photoshop, Flash, Visio and other mockup tools
- Strong attention to detail, and a commitment to delivering highly-polished web-based Prototypes under tight time constraints
- Significant experience and knowledge of web and web application development would be an asset
- Outstanding initiative and co-ordination skills including the ability of effectively partner across functional and remote teams
- Conceptualize and create intuitive, engaging and brand –consistent user interfaces
- Conduct ongoing research of web-based user interface development best practices
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills are essential